Situated within the uptown business district, the hotel provides a peaceful retreat from the trading activities that surround it. It does however offer a fully equipped business centre complete with secretarial services, plus outstanding conference and banqueting facilities catering for up to 180 people. In-room computers and fax machines are also available upon request.

At the heart of the world's most dynamic economic region and right across from the Labuan Financial Park, Sheraton Labuan is in the perfect location for the international business traveller.

Deriving its name from the Malay word 'labohan', or 'harbour', Labuan has for centuries been the port-of-call for traders from all over the world. Its deep surrounding waters favour not only ships, but also the avid scuba diver with its plentiful reefs and ancient shipwrecks. From its humble beginnings in the spice and coal mining industries, it is now the prime offshore financial base in the fastest growing economy in the region. Labuan Island is easily accessible by air from regional cities, or just a short cruise from the mainland.

Boston-based ITT Sheraton Corporation, a subsidiary of ITT Corporation, is a worldwide hospitality network focused on quality, which owns, leases, manages and franchises nearly 420 upscale and midscale properties in more than 60 countries.
